Aloha Iā Halewilikō

Affordable Housing for adults 62+

About

Aloha Iā Halewilikō in ʻAiea offers affordable studio and one-bedroom homes for seniors in a quiet neighborhood beside the ʻAiea Public Library on the historic ʻAiea Sugar Mill site. Enjoy a centrally located multipurpose room for activities and gatherings, plus supportive kūpuna services through our partnership with Lanakila Pacific, including meal distribution, digital literacy, and healthy living programs. Thoughtfully designed and rooted in local history, Aloha Iā Halewilikō delivers a nurturing, connected place to call home.

Fair Housing & Accessibility Information

This housing is offered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, gender, gender identity and expression, familial status, national origin, citizenship status, immigrant status, primary language, marital status, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, disability, source of income (including receipt of Section 8 and other similar vouchers), genetic information, miliary or veteran status, arbitrary characteristics, or any other basis currently or subsequently prohibited by law. Individuals with a disability have the right to ask for and receive reasonable accommodations and to request auxiliary aids.

A person with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation (a reasonable change in policies), a reasonable structural modification, an accessible unit or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, in order to have equal access to a housing program. If you or anyone in your household has a disability, and because of that disability requires a specific accommodation, modification or auxiliary aids or services to fully use our housing services, you may contact our staff for a reasonable accommodation form. The use of the property's Reasonable Accommodation Form is not required. You may provide a letter or document from your third party profession certifying your disability and accommodation needs.
