Riverfield Homes

Affordable Housing for Families

About

Riverfield Homes welcomes families to an afordable community in Healdsburg, set across six charming two-story buildings with landscaped lawns and tree-lined walkways. Choose from spacious two-, three-, or four-bedroom homes with stove and refrigerator, washer/dryer connections, and window coverings. Children have room to roam at the playground, and ample parking makes coming and going easy. Major shopping and grocery sit just off Highway 101, while historic downtown's post office, park, and one-of-a-kind shops and cafés are close by.

Fair Housing & Accessibility Information

This housing is offered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, gender, gender identity and expression, familial status, national origin, citizenship status, immigrant status, primary language, marital status,ancestry, age, sexual orientation, disability, source of income (including receipt of Section 8 and other similar vouchers), genetic information, military or veteran status, arbitrary characteristics, or any other basis currently or subsequently prohibited by law. Individuals with a disability have the right to ask for and receive reasonable accommodations and to request auxiliary aids.

A person with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation (a reasonable change in policies), a reasonable structural modification, an accessible unit or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, in order to have equal access to a housing program. If you or anyone in your household has a disability, and because of that disability requires a specific accommodation, modification or auxiliary aids or services to fully use our housing services, you may contact our staff for a reasonable accommodation form. You may provide a letter or document from your third party profession certifying your disability and accommodation needs.
