West Terrace

Affordable Housing for Families

About

West Terrace welcomes individuals and families to an affordable supportive community in Hyde Park, Los Angeles, blocks from Edward Vincent Jr. Park and the Metro. This four-story, green building offers 64 studio, one-, and two bedroom homes designed for stability. Gather in the community room, computer area, and lounge, or step outside to a courtyard with playground. Key-fob entry, elevator, laundry, and bike storage round out daily life.

Fair Housing & Accessibility Information

This housing is offered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, gender, gender identity and expression, familial status, national origin, citizenship status, immigrant status, primary language, marital status,ancestry, age, sexual orientation, disability, source of income (including receipt of Section 8 and other similar vouchers), genetic information, military or veteran status, arbitrary characteristics, or any other basis currently or subsequently prohibited by law. Individuals with a disability have the right to ask for and receive reasonable accommodations and to request auxiliary aids.

A person with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation (a reasonable change in policies), a reasonable structural modi ication, an accessible unit or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, in order to have equal access to a housing program. If you or anyone in your household has a disability, and because of that disability requires a speci ic accommodation, modi ication or auxiliary aids or services to fully use our housing services, you may contact our staff for a reasonable accommodation form. The use of the property's Reasonable Accommodation Form is not required. You may provide a letter or document from your third party profession certifying your disability and accommodation needs.
