APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applications will only be distributed when the waitlist is open. Applications will not be distributed when the waitlist is closed.

Each applicant must complete an application and be willing to submit to a credit history, rental history, and criminal background inquiry, as well as income and asset verification. Final selection of eligible applicants will be done by the Artist Selection Committee (ASC) through an interview process with the applicant.

APPLICATION FEES APPLY

An application fee of $35 per adult household member will apply. The application fee will not be collected until an applicant is being considered for placement. The application fee is to help cover our cost of conducting the credit and criminal background inquiries.

All application entries are to be made in ink or typed. Corrections or changes are to be made by lining through the original entry and entering the correct data. Such changes must be dated and initialed by the person making the change.

PREFERENCE

Preferences will be used on a continuous basis in the selection of applicants. However, the policy of the Property is that a preference does not guarantee admission. Every applicant must still meet the Property's Resident Selection Plan standards for acceptance as a resident. Preference for this property will be given to those applicants and or their household member(s) who participate in and are committed to the arts, identifying as artist, artisan, or cultural bearer.

For units accessible to or adaptable for persons with mobility, visual or hearing impairments, households containing at least one person with such impairment will have first priority.

Residents shall be selected in accordance with the preferences described in Section 42 of the IRS low-income housing general use, "A project does not fail to meet the general public use requirement solely because of occupancy restrictions or preferences that favor tenants...who are involved in artistic or literary activities." (H.R. 3221 / pg. 616 / line 21, passed into law August 2008). The preference so described will at all times be consistent with the requirements of Section 42 and future interpretations or guidance from the IRS and will not in any way jeopardize the project's eligibility under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

An artist applicant must income qualify, pass a criminal background check, and will be interviewed by an Artist Selection Committee to be verified for an artist preference. The Artist Selection Committee is comprised of local artists, Artspace staff, and the local property management team. The Artist Selection Committee (ASC) interviews applicants to determine their participation in, and commitment to the arts; they do not judge the content of an applicant's artistic work. Applicants deemed ineligible for the preference will be moved to the bottom of the waitlist.

If at any time there is no applicant with an artist preference on the waitlist, then no unit in the Project shall be held vacant awaiting such applicant, but shall be rented promptly to an approved applicant without a preference.

APARTMENT TRANSFER POLICY

An Apartment Transfer List is maintained for those residents who have been approved for transfer on the basis of a disability or change in household status. Transfers for accessibility or medical reasons will have priority over those for changes in household composition. Residents on the Apartment Transfer List will have priority over the applicants on the waitlist.

In order to transfer to another apartment in the property, the family must meet the initial eligibility requirements of the LIHTC Program or the transfer will not be allowed. During the initial term of the Lease, no apartment transfers will be allowed.

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

Occupancy standards are the criteria established for matching a household with the most appropriate size and type of apartment. The following occupancy guidelines will be followed to avoid over utilization of the apartments as follows:

Bedroom Size	Household Maximum

To determine the proper bedroom size for which a household may qualify, the following household members are to be included:

1. All full-time members of the household, and
2. Live-in attendants
3. Foster children
4. Unborn children
5. Children in the process of adoption

NOTE: Live-in attendants are subject to the criminal and landlord provisions of this plan with the exception of criteria that determines ability to pay rent. Live-in attendants are not tenants and do not have rights associated with a landlord-tenant relationship. The fee to run a criminal background check is currently $20 per live-in attendant.

CHANGES IN HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION

During the initial term of the Lease, no changes in household composition will be allowed. Only those household members listed on the application at time of move in will be allowed to reside in the apartment during this time. Exceptions considered would include unborn children and legal adoptions.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT OF 2013

The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects victims against eviction or denial of housing based on domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. In 2013, Congress expanded VAWA’s housing protections by covering additional federal housing programs, including the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit program (“LIHTC”). VAWA offers the following protections:

1. An applicant’s or program participant’s status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking is not a basis for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for admission.
2. This must support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. It must protect victims, as well as members of their family, from being denied housing or from losing their HUD assisted housing.
3. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease or other “good cause” for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of a victim of abuse.
4. Criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, engaged in by a member of a tenant’s household or any guest or other person under the tenant’s control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of the criminal acts.
5. Assistance may be terminated or a lease “bifurcated” in order to remove an offending household member from the home. Whether or not the individual is a signatory to the lease and lawful tenant, if he/she engages in a criminal act of physical violence against family members or others, he/she stands to be evicted, removed, or have his/her occupancy rights terminated. This action is taken while allowing the victim, who is a tenant or a lawful occupant, to remain.
6. The provisions protecting victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking engaged in by a member of the household, may not be construed to limit Ola Ka ‘Ilima, when notified, from honoring various court orders issued to either protect the victim or address the distribution of property in case a family breaks up.
7. The authority to evict or terminate assistance is not limited with respect to a victim that commits unrelated criminal activity. Furthermore, if Ola Ka ‘Ilima can show an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if an unlawful tenant’s residency is not terminated, then evicting a victim is an option, the VAWA notwithstanding. Ultimately, Ola Ka ‘Ilima will not subject victims to more demanding standards than other tenants.

The VAWA protections shall not supersede any provision of any federal, state, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. The laws offering greater protection are applied in instances of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.

The Notice of Occupancy Rights and Certification form will be provided to applicants when assistance is being denied or at the time of move-in.
