Avalon Apartments is a fifty-five (55) unit housing community of which thirty-one (31) units are reserved for extremely low-income, homeless, and chronically homeless households living with special needs. Twenty-three (23) general affordable units are reserved for very-low-income households. One unit is reserved for management staff.

Avalon Apartments will make reasonable accommodations to individuals whose disability so require. Reasonable Accommodation Request forms are available upon request from management. Avalon Apartments is an Equal Opportunity Housing Facility, admitting people in accordance with local, state and federal Fair Housing laws, and in accordance with California Tax Credit Allocation Committee (CTCAC), low-income housing tax credit program and the California Housing Finance Agency (CalHFA) Mental Health Services Act Housing (MHSA) program.

INCOME LIMITS

To qualify, the household's gross income may not exceed the applicable maximum income limit per household size and may not be lower than the income minimum per household size.

The income maximums and minimums are attached and will be posted in the Apartment's Office.

SPECIAL NEEDS DESIGNATED UNITS

Funding for ACOF communities requires all or a percentage of units to be occupied by households with special needs. Target populations may include but are not limited to developmentally disabled individuals or homeless persons with disabilities and homeless families. Applicants may be referred in coordination with Continuum of Care Coordinated Entry System (CES) or by another service agency.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applications will be available online, in the office during normal business hours or by requesting an application by telephone. Application fees are $46.00 per each household member 18 years of age and older. The maximum charge per household is $138.00. For homeless or at risk of homelessness designated units, applicants will only pay the criminal background fee of $23 per household member 18 years of age and older. The maximum charge per household is $69.

An application fee(s) (per adult to occupy the apartment) is required at the time an application is processed to determine eligibility. A holding deposit of $200 will be collected once a unit is offered. These funds must be in the form of a cashier's check. The holding deposit will be applied to your Security Deposit and or first month's rent if your application is approved and you move-in on your scheduled move-in day. If you rescind your application within three (3) days of the date the holding deposit was paid, your holding deposit will be reimbursed. If you cancel after the initial 3 days for any reason your holding deposit will be forfeited. The application fee is non-refundable.

Each applicant must complete an application and be willing to submit to a credit history, rental history, and criminal background inquiry, as well as income and asset verifications.

Signed and dated applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis for the general affordable units. For the CalHFA-MHSA designated units, applicants are referred by LACDMH network and Kedren Community Mental Health Center. Rents for the MHSA designated units occupied by an MHSA eligible resident shall be restricted to no more than thirty percent (30%) of fifty percent (50%) of the area median income.

The application must be completed and signed by the head of household and all household members 18 years of age. If an application is not completely answered, the date of it being received once fully completed will be the date that the application is considered accepted for rental purposes.

Prospective residents may request assistance from supportive services with the application process. Assistance will include:

- Explaining and filling out the application form
- Obtaining supportive documents needed to complete the application
- Attending the intake interview meeting
- Assistance during the appeal process
- Assistance with Reasonable Accommodation requests

PREFERENCES

Every applicant must meet the Property’s Resident Selection Plan standards for acceptance as a resident.

For units designed as accessible for persons with mobility, special needs, visual or hearing impairments, households containing at least one person with such impairment will have first priority for those units.

UNIT TRANSFER POLICY

A Unit Transfer List is maintained for those residents who have been approved for transfer on the basis of a medical reason certified by a third-party professional. Residents on the Unit Transfer List will have priority over the applicants on the Waiting List.

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

Occupancy standards are the criteria established for matching a household with the most appropriate size and type of apartment. The occupancy guidelines listed below will be followed to avoid under or over utilization of the units:

| Bedroom | Household Minimum | Household Maximum |
|----------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 | 1 | 3 |
| 2 | 2 | 5 |
| 3 | 4 | 7 |

To determine the proper bedroom size for which a household may qualify, the following household members are to be included: 1. All full-time members of the household, and 2. Live-in attendants 3. Foster children and 4. Unborn children and children in the process of adoption.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT OF 2013

The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects victims against eviction or denial of housing based on domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. VAWA offers the following protections:

1. An applicant’s or program participant’s status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking is not a basis for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for admission.
2. This must support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. It must protect victims, as well as members of their family, from being denied housing or from losing their HUD assisted housing.
3. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease or other “good cause” for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of a victim of abuse.
4. Criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, engaged in by a member of a tenant’s household or any guest or other person under the tenant’s control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of the criminal acts.

5. Assistance may be terminated or a lease “bifurcated” in order to remove an offending household member from the home. Whether or not the individual is a signatory to the lease and lawful tenant, if he/she engages in a criminal act of physical violence against family members or others, he/she stands to be evicted, removed, or have his/her occupancy rights terminated. This action is taken while allowing the victim, who is a tenant or a lawful occupant, to remain.
6. The provisions protecting victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking engaged in by a member of the household, may not be construed to limit the manager, when notified, from honoring various court orders issued to either protect the victim or address the distribution of property in case a family breaks up.
7. The authority to evict or terminate assistance is not limited with respect to a victim that commits unrelated criminal activity. Furthermore, if the manager can show an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if an unlawful tenant’s residency is not terminated, then evicting a victim is an option, the VAWA notwithstanding. Ultimately, the manager will not subject victims to more demanding standards than other tenants.

The VAWA protections shall not supersede any provision of any federal, state, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. The laws offering greater protection are applied in instances of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.

The Notice of Occupancy Rights and Certification form will be provided to applicants when assistance is being denied or at the time of move-in.

GROUNDS FOR DENIAL

Referred applicants or the referred applicant’s representative may request consideration of mitigating circumstances related to negative criminal or other history verified during the application process. Mitigating circumstances are conditions or occasions that partially explain a negative situation or make it more understandable. Negative criminal or other history may be waived during the appeal process. However, a person with a conviction for a violent felony or manufacturing or distributing illegal substances during the past seven years will be denied housing.

1. Total family income exceeds the applicable income limits published by the applicable regulatory agency.
2. Household does not meet the minimum income limit (not applicable to subsidized households).
3. Household cannot pay the full security deposit at move-in.
4. Household refuses to accept the second offer of an apartment.

9. Applicant has failed to provide adequate verification of income or we are unable to adequately verify income and/or income sources.

not be absent from the unit for more than 60 consecutive days, or for longer than 180 continuous days for medical reasons.

Not applicable for prospective applicants who meet the homeless or at risk of homelessness criteria.

GRIEVANCE/APPEAL PROCESS

Failure to meet one or more of the foregoing screening criteria may be grounds for denial, however, each application is considered as a whole, and the above factors are considered as part of a weighted formula. Should the applicants fail to meet the screening criteria, they will receive a notice in writing indicating that they have the right to appeal the decision. This notice must indicate that the applicant has 14 days to dispute the decision.

An appeal meeting with the Property Supervisor, or the Compliance staff will be held within 10 business days of receipt of the applicant's request.

Within five days of the appeal meeting, the property will advise the applicant in writing of the final decision regarding eligibility. Apartments will not be held for those applicants in the appeal process.

ADMINISTRATION OF WAITING LIST

The property is required to maintain a Waiting List of all eligible applicants. Applicants must be placed on the Waiting List and selected from the Waiting List even in situations where there are vacancies, and the application is processed upon receipt. This procedure is necessary to assure the complete and accurate processing of all documentation for all applicants.

The Waiting List will be purged annually. Each applicant will receive a letter from the property, which will request updated information and ask about their continued interest. This letter must be returned within the specified time, or their application will be removed from the Waiting List. It is the responsibility of the applicant to maintain a current address with the office to receive waitlist correspondence.
