Each applicant must complete an application and be willing to submit to a rental history, and criminal background inquiry, as well as income and asset verifications.

Signed and dated applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. The application must be completed and signed by the head of household and all household members over 18 before an applicant can be placed on the appropriate waiting list. If an application is not completely answered, the date of it being fully completed will be the date that the application is considered accepted for rental purposes.

After the initial lottery, applications received when the waiting list is re-opened, will then be logged by date and time received and placed on the appropriate waiting list. When a vacancy at the property exists or is expected within the next ninety (90) days, the verification-selection process will begin immediately for the next applicant on the appropriate waiting list in regard to income, assets, and eligible program for certification.

PREFERENCES

Preferences will be used on a continuous basis in the selection of applicants. However, the policy of the Property is that a preference does not guarantee admission. Every applicant must still meet the Property's Resident Selection Plan standards for acceptance as a resident.

For apartments accessible to or adaptable for persons with mobility, visual or hearing impairments, households containing at least one person with such impairment will have priority.

Where preferences apply, applicants with a valid and verified preference will be moved to the top of the waiting list above persons without a preference.

The preferences so described will always be consistent with the requirements of Section 42 and future interpretations or guidance from the IRS and will not in any way jeopardize the project's eligibility under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

APARTMENT TRANSFER POLICY

An Apartment Transfer List is maintained for those residents who have been approved for transfer based on a disability or change in household status. Transfers for accessibility or medical reasons will have priority over those for changes in household composition. Residents on the Apartment Transfer List will have priority over the applicants on the waiting List.

In order to transfer to another building in the property, the family must meet the initial eligibility requirements of the LIHTC program, or the transfer will not be allowed.

OCCUPANCY GUIDELINES

Occupancy guidelines are the criteria established for matching a household with the most appropriate size and type of apartment. The following occupancy guidelines will be followed to avoid over utilization of the apartments as follows:

Bedroom Size	Household Maximum

To determine the proper bedroom size for which a household may qualify, the following household members are to be included:

1. All full-time members of the household, and
2. Live-in attendants.

3. Foster children
4. Unborn children
5. Children in the process of adoption.

NOTE: Live-in attendants are subject to the criminal and landlord provisions of this plan except for criteria that determines ability to pay rent.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT OF 2013

The Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA") protects victims against eviction or denial of housing based on domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. In 2013, Congress expanded VAWA's housing protections by covering additional federal housing programs, including the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit program ("LIHTC"). VAWA offers the following protections:

1. An applicant's or program participant's status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking is not a basis for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for admission.
2. This must support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. It must protect victims, as well as members of their family, from being denied housing or from losing their HUD assisted housing.
3. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease or other "good cause" for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of a victim of abuse.

4. Criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of the criminal acts.
5. Assistance may be terminated, or a lease "bifurcated" to remove an offending household member from the home. Whether or not the individual is a signatory to the lease and lawful tenant, if he/she engages in a criminal act of physical violence against family members or others, he/she stands to be evicted, removed, or have his/her occupancy rights terminated. This action is taken while allowing the victim, who is a tenant or a lawful occupant, to remain.
6. The provisions protecting victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking engaged in by a member of the household, may not be construed to limit Meheula Vista III, when notified, from honoring various court orders issued to either protect the victim or address the distribution of property in case a family breaks up.
7. The authority to evict or terminate assistance is not limited with respect to a victim that commits unrelated criminal activity. Furthermore, if Meheula Vista III can show an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if an unlawful tenant's residency is not terminated, then evicting a victim is an option, the VAWA notwithstanding. Ultimately, Meheula Vista III will not subject victims to more demanding standards than other tenants.

The VAWA protections shall not supersede any provision of any federal, state, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The laws offering greater protection are applied in instances of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

The Notice of Occupancy Rights and Certification form will be provided to applicants when assistance is being denied or at the time of move-in.

GRIEVANCE/APPEAL PROCESS

Failure to meet one or more of the foregoing screening criteria may be grounds for rejection, however, each application is considered as a whole, and the above factors are considered as part of a weighted formula. Should the applicants fail to meet the screening criteria, they will receive a notice in writing indicating that they have the right to appeal the decision. This notice must indicate that the applicant has 14 days to dispute the decision.

An appeal meeting with the Property Supervisor will be held within 10 business days of receipt of the applicant's request.

Within five days of the appeal meeting, the property will advise the applicant in writing of the final decision regarding eligibility. Apartments will not be held for those applicants in the appeal process.

ADMINISTRATION OF WAITING LIST

The property is required to maintain a waiting list of all applicants that submit a completed application. Applicants must be placed on the waiting list and selected from the waiting list even in situations where there are vacancies, and the application is processed upon receipt. This procedure is necessary to ensure the complete and accurate processing of all documentation for all applicants.

The property has one waiting list that is established and maintained in lottery order then in chronological order based on the date and time of receipt of the Application. The waiting list contains the following information for each applicant:

1. Applicant Name
2. Address and/or Contact Information
3. Phone Number(s)
4. Apartment Type/Size
5. Household Composition
6. Preference/Accessibility requirements
7. Income level
8. Date/ Time of Application

Applicants must report changes in writing to any of the information immediately.

As units become available and an applicant's name approaches the top of the waiting list, a notice of "Unit Availability" is sent to the applicant household, inviting the household to complete the initial certification process online or schedule an interview appointment with management to complete the initial certification process in-person as a reasonable accommodation.

The notice will inform applicants that Meheula Vista III is notifying additional applicants about the upcoming vacancy and will begin processing applications in order of receipt. Meheula Vista III will accept the applicant household who is in first position on the waiting list for the next available unit. The other remaining applicants will remain on the waiting list but will not lose their position.

After receiving the "Unit Availability" notice inviting the household to complete the online certification process or attend a scheduled in-person interview, applicants have seven (7) calendar days to respond to managements' invitation. If an applicant fails to complete the online certification process or attend the scheduled interview within seven (7) calendar days of the date on the letter, Meheula Vista III will assume the applicant is no longer interested in remaining on the waiting list and the applicant will receive a written notice that their name has been removed from the waiting list.

Applicants will have the opportunity to decline the first invitation to complete the certification process or decline the first apartment offered and retain their position on the waiting list. Should the applicant decline the second offer to complete the certification process or the second offer of the next available apartment, they will be removed from the waiting list.

PURGING THE WAITING LIST

The waiting list will be purged annually. Each applicant will receive a letter from the property, which will request updated information and ask about their continued interest. This letter must be returned within the specified time or their application will be removed from the waiting list. It is the responsibility of the applicant to maintain a current address with the office in order to receive waiting list correspondence. Any correspondence returned undeliverable will result in application being removed from the waiting list.

OPENING/CLOSING OF WAITING LIST

Meheula Vista III will monitor the vacancies and waiting list regularly to ensure that there are enough applicants to fill the vacancies. Once the waiting on the waiting list has been determined to exceed a 12-month waiting, the waiting list will be closed.

The waiting list may be closed for one or more apartment sizes when the average wait is longer than 12 months. When the waiting list is closed, Meheula Vista III will advise potential applicants that the waiting list is closed and refuse to take additional applications. Meheula Vista III will publish a notice stating that the waiting list is closed in a publication likely to be read by potential applicants. The notice will state the reasons for Meheula Vista III's refusal to accept additional applications.

When Meheula Vista III agrees to accept applications again, the notice of this action will be announced in a publication likely to be read by potential applicants in the same manner as the notification that the waiting list was closed.

Advertisements will include where and when to apply and will conform to the advertising and outreach activities described in the Marketing Plan for Meheula Vista III.

AVAILABILITY OF RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

The Resident Selection Plan is available in the management office. Changes to the Plan will be sent via U.S. mail to all persons on the active waiting List. When the waiting List opens, the Resident Selection Plan will be distributed with applications and are available by request from management.

ANNUAL/INTERIM RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

All residents must be re-certified annually. Residents are also required to report all interim changes to management that occur between annually scheduled re-certifications.

APARTMENT INSPECTION REQUIREMENT

Before signing the lease, Meheula Vista III and the resident must jointly inspect the apartment. The resident has five days to report any additional deficiencies to Meheula Vista III to be noted on the move-in inspection form.

Annual apartment inspections are performed by Meheula Vista III. Agencies providing funding have the right to inspect the apartment to ensure the property is physically well maintained and that the residents are provided with decent, safe, and sanitary housing. Residents will receive prior written notification for all apartment inspections.
