Affordable Housing for Adults 62+

Once Housed

- Non-smoking property.
- You remain eligible regardless of income changes.
- Rent adjusts annually based on income.
- Voluntary supportive services available.
- VAWA protections for domestic violence survivors.

Who Is Eligible?

You may qualify for a HOME-ARP unit if you are 62 years or older and meet at least one of the following conditions:

- Homeless: You lack a fixed, regular, and adequate place to sleep at night, or you will lose your housing within 14 days.
- At Risk of Homelessness: Your income is below 30% of the area median income (AMI), and you face an unstable housing situation (e.g., received an eviction notice, doubled up, moving frequently).
- Fleeing Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Stalking, or Human Trafficking: You are fleeing or attempting to flee any of these situations.
- At Greatest Risk of Housing Instability: Your income is at or below 30% AMI and you pay more than 50% of your income toward housing. Your income is at or your income is at or below 50% AMI and you face a housing instability condition.
- Veteran: You are a veteran (or in a household with a veteran) who meets any of the above criteria.

Priority Preferences

Per the City of Glendale HOME-ARP Allocation Plan, the following adults 62 years or older receive priority:

1. At Risk of Homelessness: Adults 62+ with income below 30% AMI who face unstable housing conditions.
2. At Greatest Risk of Housing Instability: Adults 62+ with extremely low income and severe housing cost burden or instability.

Adults 62+ in other qualifying populations are eligible after these preferred groups have been served.

How These Units Are Filled

1. The Glendale Continuum of Care (CoC) refers eligible adults 62+ for 30 days. Contact a CoC agency to get connected.
2. Wait List: If no referral is made, the next eligible applicant will be selected from the HOME-ARP wait list.

Need help applying? You may request that a Case Manager be assigned to help you with the application process, including filling out forms, obtaining documents, and attending interviews. Call (818) 465-9427 or contact any of the CoC agencies listed on page 3.
